ANTI COMPETITIVE POLICY

1. Competition Law

As a company and as individuals we are obliged by law to comply with various rules at national level that are designed to ensure that competition between businesses within India and abroad is not unduly restricted. Competition compliance is all about upholding these rules and more importantly about being seen to uphold these rules.

Under the Competition Act, 2002, there are

- (i) prohibitions on anti-competitive agreements and
- (ii) rules relating to abusive conduct by dominant businesses

Competition commission of India aims to establish a robust competitive environment through

- Proactive engagement with all stakeholders, including consumers, industry, government and international jurisdictions
- Being a knowledge intensive organization with high competence levels
- Professionalism, transparency, resolve and wisdom in enforcement.

2. Investigation of Anti-Competitive Activities

In the India, the Competition Commission of India has extensive powers to investigate markets and business activity where it is considered that anti-competitive practices may be taking place. This could involve officials from the Competition Commission of India arriving at any or all KPPL premises to search our records

3. Management Commitment

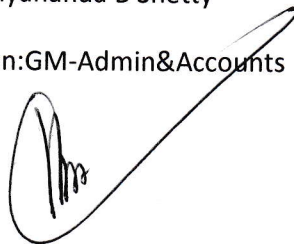

KPPL is committed to comply with Competition Act, 2002 and all marketing staff should be aware that any infringement of the law in KPPL will be viewed very seriously. Management insists that the department head to read Competition Act and hold refresh training every year.
